

DENENDEH DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION (DDC)

DENENDEH DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION was created in 1982 by the Dene National Assembly as a not-for-profit Corporation with the goal of building a stronger Dene future and supporting economic, social and cultural development.

The membership of DDC is comprised of the Chiefs of Denendeh. DDC is 100% owned by the Dene of the Northwest Territories. The Dene are the original inhabitants of the NWT and Northern Canada.

THE PRINCIPLES

- Economic development that does not negatively impact the environment
- Human resource development as a main requirement for economic self-sufficiency
- Participation and accountability (membership involvement in planning and accountability through representation on Boards)
- Change and flexibility (regular assessment of objectives, directions and activities at all levels to stay current)
- Non-competitive alliances with our regional and community-based aboriginal owned businesses.

THE VISION

- Denendeh Development Corporation is a vehicle for the Dene regions to cooperate in viable socio-economic endeavors

THE MANDATE

- Foster measurable employment growth and career training
- Provide economic and business information to Dene members
- Strengthen economic viability of the Dene through investments and education
